Greg discussed the numbers of vendors were up for the February 9th market. Hot Cholate sales are down, and it was decided to sale only during Christmas market. 21 vendors paid so far for full season

Sarah looked into having T-shirts made up with the market logo on them, to sale. Got pricing back from two companies. Waiting on third company to make a final decision.

Continuing to do blogs: Recipes using market products, herbs and goat meat. Container gardens and also pumpkin day (growing extra-large pumpkins)

Old Business

Judy, Greg and Logan meet with the town. The MOU (Memorandum of Understanding) has been signed and a check in the amount of $150.00 for utilities has been paid. The town is interested in knowing if the Farmers market building could be used for other events beside the market. At this time the board feels that this is not feasible, due to moving of vendors' tables and coolers.

New Business

Sarah has taken a new job which will require her to travel more and not be available at the market every Saturday. She will continue to provide social media support to the market. She will take on an advisory role (non-voting) position to the board. Motion was made to adjust the profile for an assistant market manager and look at other applicants. (Judy made motion, Emily seconded).

A farm to table dinner was presented by Emily to the board. A date of September 7th at 6:30pm at the WFM building was decided upon. A possible menu of roasted meats and veggies was suggested, along with a light dessert. Wine and beer to be served. Logan to ask 7 Dogs Brewery about beer. Dessert auction to be held again. More updates as progresses.
